• THE INSIDE LANE •

Most of the Missouri State track and field team took this past weekend off from competition to prepare for the upcoming Missouri Valley Conference Indoor Track and Field Championships. However, two Lady Bear middle distance runners used to weekend to get in one more competition before heading to the Valley meet this weekend.

Junior Asher Kyger and freshman Emily Fletcher took part in the nearby Central Missouri Classic in Warrensburg, Mo. The pair easily outdistanced their competition in the One-Mile run sweeping the first two places. Kyger was the first to cross the line and she did so with a season best 5:01.32 with Fletcher coming in next at 5:12.50. Their closest competitor was well behind with a finishing time of 5:24.69.

Looking to test her speed Kyger came back to run in the 600 yard run just 30 minutes later. Kyger's time of 1:28.46 was good enough for third place, just 0.86-seconds away from her second win of the meet.

Kyger, Fletcher and the rest of the Missouri State track and field team will now turn all sights towards the Missouri Valley Conference Indoor Championships.

The Lady Bears enter the meet with what looks to be the Valley's top track event squad. Missouri State features three Valley champions in junior Carrie Vestal (outdoor 10,000m) and sophomores Leander Ernest (indoor 400m, outdoor 4x400m) and Yaneika Malcolm (outdoor 4x400m). All three appear to be contenders for individual titles again this indoor season.

For Missouri State to earn a podium position this weekend they will look to continue their track event success and add some much needed scoring power in the field events. Freshman long jump standout Shawntee Middlebrook and sophomore high jumper Maraneika Goffe appear to be the team's leaders in that area.

Competition will begin Saturday at host site University of N. Iowa in the UNI Dome in Cedar Falls, Ia. Complete meet information can be found online at the schedule page on BearsTrack.net.

• OFF THE TRACK •

• Missouri State's Leander Ernest was named the Missouri Valley Conference track and field Athlete of the Week for the second time this season last week. The honor comes after Ernest ran the national record for her home country of St. Lucia in the 800-meters while competing for MSU at the Iowa State Classic. Ernest's time of 2:07.90 is a NCAA national qualifying performance and the top time in the MVC this season.

• Missouri State head track and field coach Ron Boyce will enter this weekends Missouri Valley Conference Indoor Track and Field Championships as the winningest women's indoor track and field coach in Valley history. In eleven seasons Boyce's teams have won five indoor track and field titles. That total ranks him first among Valley coaches all time. Under Boyce the track and field programs have won a total of eight MVC titles both indoors and outdoors.
