• THE INSIDE LANE •

Missouri State opened their outdoor track and field season at the Missouri Relays in Columbia, Mo. March 28-29 with two impressive wins from Asher Kyger and Leander Ernest.

In the 1,500-meter run Kyger, a former Ava High School (Mo.) standout, pulled away from the field with 500-meters to go to take the win and a new personal best of 4:33.93. Her run makes her the sixth best performer all time for MSU. Kyger also returned to the track for the 800-meter run later in the meet narrowly missing her second win of the day with a runner-up performance of 2:15.28.

Lady Bear 400-meter runners Leander Ernest and Yaneika Malcolm showed the state MSU's sprint power sweeping the events first two places. The sophomore duo finished with 55.10 and 56.80 performances, respectively. Freshman Jacqui Lindsey was ninth in 58.68.

In her first career attempt at the 3,000-meter Steeplechase freshman Terry Phillips took second overall and became Missouri State's sixth best performer all time in the event. The Kansas City native's finishing time of 11:01.84 also marks the top time ever recorded by a Missouri State freshman. She takes over the top freshman mark from current Missouri State junior Jamie Vest who ran 11:02.99 in 2006.

Sophomore Emily Fletcher was impressive in her debut at the 3,000-meter run taking fourth in the field of 38 runners. Fletcher, a middle-distance specialist, finished the event in 10:04.01. Junior Jamie Vest was not far behind finishing her 3,000-meter run in seventh at 10:16.56.

Sophomore thrower Deandrea Rolle earned a personal best 38-5.5 in the shot put. Her throw was good enough for seventh place in her event.

Two other Lady Bear distance runners saw personal bests fall in Columbia. Freshman Mari-Jean Vance bettered her 5,000-meter run best by one-minute and 18-seconds with her finishing time of 19:37.72. Sophomore Staci Nelson continues to develop her 3,000-meter steeplechase technique finishing the event in 11:53.66, a 53-second improvement on her personal best.

The Lady Bears saw limited action in the sprint events over the weekend in Columbia scratching from several events, including both relays, due to the extremely cold weather conditions not conducive for sprint races.

The team will be back in action Saturday, April 5th as the majority of the team will be competing in Springfield for Missouri State's only home appearance of 2008. The MSU Big Bear Invitational begins at 2:00pm in the field and at 3:45pm on the track. Meet information is online at BearsTrack.net. A select number of distance runners will travel west to the Stanford Invitational in Palo Alto, Ca. to compete on April 4th and 5th.

• OFF THE TRACK •

• Missouri State is still looking for volunteers and officials for its home track and field events. MSU will host a college meet April 5th and the Aldo Sebben Missouri State Relays (High School) on April 22nd. E-mail GregHipp@MissouriState.edu to get involved.
